carpet in bedrooms, air-conditioning, ceiling fans, Caesarstone benches in kitchen and bathrooms, soft-close cabinetry, gas cooktop, stainless steel appliances, mint-hued glass splashback, storage under house, and a fabulous elevated firepit area which will get plenty of use!

The design offers some versatility with the fourth bedroom on ground floor also suitable as a home office/gym/media room; and the double lock up garage has both internal and external access, so could be converted to an office/salon entered by clients through the glass sliding doors.

Low maintenance gardens frame the home, and when you sit out on your back deck, with a refreshing Aperol Spritz after a day at work, soaking up the breeze, the privacy, and the calm, you can unwind in comfort and style. On a glorious crisp evening, light up the firepit and gather around to toast the good life under the sparkling stars, because you, indeed, are living it right here!

Aroona is a very family-friendly place to live and invest; quiet, safe, green, and elevated, with quality homes on decent-sized blocks. Private and public schools, golf, the Sunshine Coast University Public and Private Hospitals, Currimundi Lake, sporting facilities, beaches, shopping centres, Caloundra CBD, and access to the motorway to Brisbane are all within a 5-15-minute radius from the front door.

This really offers the coveted trinity - lifestyle, location, presentation.
