benches, stainless steel appliances, walk-in pantry, pendant lighting over breakfast bar, quality window furnishings, rain showerheads, wide hallways, and good storage; are all features of note.

The master bedroom is located at rear of the home, away from the other bedrooms; and with two separate internal living areas, there is good communal and individual space. Your family BBQ's, morning coffee, twilight wine, Saturday or Sunday brunch after a morning at the beach, will be enjoyed on the patio, soaking up gentle breezes and just relaxing.

Designed to maximise lifestyle and minimise maintenance - this is the type of contemporary home the modern buyer is increasingly seeking, from couples downsizing or entering the market through to families, easy-care living is top of the list for many purchasers.

Located in the Harmony development, an exciting community with 100 hectares of parkland, east of the highway centrally positioned between spectacular coast beaches and the beautiful Sunshine Coast hinterland, with a focus on environment and connectivity; this is a wonderful place to live and invest.

Local shops are 5 mins away for all your daily needs, the beach is 15 mins away and Maroochydore CBD is a quick 20 mins drive. Harmony is a star performer in the local property market. Don't be left saying if only, invest in your slice today.
