connection, and generous storage.

The floor plan is family-friendly facilitating excellent separation of living, as well as indoor and outdoor entertaining options. The master bedroom is at the rear of the home with a delightful outlook over the lake, as well as direct access to the back patio...imagine waking up here every day!

Low maintenance flat gardens, fenced for secure child and pet-friendly outdoor play - provide masses of space for the kids to embrace more sunshine and less screen time; there's also fabulous parks, walk and cycle ways in the neighbourhood to encourage an active lifestyle.

Located in the Coast's prime education hub - the university, Siena Catholic College, and Chancellor State College are within walking distance. Access to Claymore Road connecting to Sunshine Motorway is quick and easy, and Mooloolaba Beach is a 13-minute drive.

Original owners have taken meticulous care of this gorgeous home, creating many cherished memories over their time here; in fact, they love it here so much, they are willing to rent it back from next owner. Outstanding opportunity in most coveted pocket of Sippy Downs!
