The gardens are pristine, and very child and pet friendly, and there is room for a pool, if desired. You can sit out on the patio with a cuppa and something delicious and keep an eye on the kids whilst they play outside and soak up some sunshine and fresh air. At wine o'clock, the patio is the perfect spot for a sundowner (or two); and of course, the good old Aussie weekend BBQ will be alive and well here.

Located in a quiet loop street, with neighbourhood traffic only; this is a safe, friendly place to live and raise a family. The local IGA is a three-minute drive or 15-minute flat walk, Ivadale Family Park and lake is a 10-minute walk, and local schools such as Meridan State College, Talara Primary College, and Unity College are in close proximity.

Access to Sugar Bag Road connecting you to the CBD in just 10 minutes is quick and easy, and its just a few minutes' drive to Caloundra Road connecting you to M1 to Brisbane.

Buyers in the market for a well-located solid investment property, or a delightful place to anchor down and call home, should hurry to inspect. Little Mountain is always in demand, people love living here, and you'll see why!
