8 Edwin Road, Buderim

Live Amongst the Trees

This charming home, tucked away in a lush leafy cul-de-sac on the Mons side of Buderim has plenty to offer. With a rainforest outlook from either of the two large expansive decks, the home offers peaceful living amongst the treetops with Buderim Village and local beaches only a short drive away.

The entry level of the home comprises three good sized bedrooms, the master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom. On this level there is another main bathroom and separate toilet. The pleasant kitchen flows onto the open plan living / dining area to the large rear deck which is perfect for entertaining or a morning coffee with the plethora of bird life.

The lower level has a studio with a separate entrance which is ideal for the home office. The studio is currently being used as a Pilates studio and with beautiful polished floors lends itself as a perfect quiet space for a work from home set-up as well as dual living for profit or family reasons. The studio opens up to another large rear deck with tranquil views of the rainforest. The lower
