to patio from master, security, system, security screens, roll down café style blinds on patio, 5kW solar power, 5x3.4 shed, plus garden shed - are just some of the features of note.

Presentation sparkles inside and out and there is no money needing to be spent - this home has been well cared for and maintained, and current owners have made improvements that have further enhanced value and appeal.

When you return home after a morning at the beach - there will be nothing better than firing up the BBQ, chilling the drinks, selecting your Spotify playlist, and toasting the good life with family and friends. There is heaps of room for the kids to play footy and backyard cricket, get the neighbours together and enjoy some laughter in the sunshine...this is how we roll!

Located in a whisper-quiet family-friendly enclave, only kilometre from Meridan State College (12 minute walk) and also within a 10 minute drive of multiple schools - private and public; seven-minutes' walk to the Night Owl convenience store, 15-minutes' walk to Parkland Tavern, and just 220 metres to Ivadale Family Park - location is premium. Caloundra CBD and beaches are approximately 10 minutes' drive, and access to M1 to Brisbane is quick and easy.

Buyers in the market for a quality, contemporary family home with plenty of room inside and out for all, must put this top of the list. It is exceptional in every sense; and offers plenty of extras to seal the deal!
