countryside, separate laundry, and huge 180m² Colorbond 3-bay powered shed, toilet, TV aerial, and 36m² mezzanine, that can accommodate up to nine vehicles, everything has been thought of!

High ceilings, polished concrete floors, spotted gum timber on decking, handsome double-sided fireplace in centre of living/dining, ceiling fans, air-conditioning, Smeg appliances, gas cooktop, soft close cabinetry, deck access from two of the bedrooms, large skylight, and sophisticated on-point décor throughout - are all features that enhance what is already a property with lashings of 'wow'!

In addition to the 3-bay shed, other infrastructure on the property includes fencing, shipping container/storage, bioseptic system, and 50,000 litre water tank (supplying drinking water) plus bore and pump to irrigate garden. There is a cosy firepit area to toast marshmallows under the sparkling stars, as well as an open area terraced area providing additional alfresco entertaining space.

The home is perfectly positioned on an east-facing elevated site to maximise the verdant vista and gentle breezes. A tree-lined driveway sets the tone for what is a veritable hinterland sanctuary that is picturesque and breathtaking, a sanctuary beyond compare.

Located just a few minutes' drive into the township of Mooloolah with amenities including retail, parks, rail to Brisbane, community hall, primary school, sporting facilities, cafes and more...plus 25 minutes to Caloundra's spectacular beaches and just over an hour to Brisbane - this is tranquil acreage living without isolation.

All who inspect will be captivated; there can only be one lucky buyer, be quick to act!
