external access from three of four bedrooms, lead-lighting, wine cellar, roll down blinds on back deck, north-facing balcony off dining, and a gorgeous terraced firepit area in rear garden are some of the features of note that enhance value and appeal.

Framed by lush leafy gardens on an 866m² block, with plenty of room for a pool, and backing onto nature reserve to protect your outlook, peace and privacy, the outdoor space is as enticing as the indoor space. When the cooler weather arrives in coming months gather around the firepit and exchange stories and laughter over a few drinks under the sparkling stars.

You'll be able to relax and socialise alfresco in all seasons; savour the toasty winter afternoon sun and a view to Mount Coolum from the front deck, and in the warmer months, the back deck is where most of your living and entertaining will be done.

Located in a quiet, elevated cul-de-sac in the Buderim Forest precinct, the neighbourhood is family-friendly and is within walking distance to Immanuel Lutheran College, one of the Coast's most highly regarded and oldest private schools; plus, just minutes to Sunshine Plaza, SunCentral CBD and beaches. Tightly held since 2001, inspections will reveal why.
