Low maintenance inside and out, there is no immediate money needing to be spent; however, if you choose to renovate or rebuild, there is no fear of overcapitalising in this premium beachside strip.

From here you can walk to the beach, including dog-friendly beach where your furry companion can make new friends, local shops including The Fruit Shed, Mick's Meat Barn, café, bakery, chemist and BWS - just 650 metres away; Kawana Shoppingworld is a 17-minute walk and the surf club a 20-minute walk. The hospital precinct is less than 10 minutes' drive and leisure/ sporting facilities are in close proximity.

The coastal strip running from Minyama in the north to Wurtulla in the south is in high demand - it is a premium lifestyle zone close to major amenities, boasts a stunning coastline with miles and miles of pristine beaches, and there is great connectivity between communities via the Nicklin Way.

With the Sunshine Coast property market running red-hot right now and supply outstripping stock levels - an opportunity such as this will generate huge interest; put your best offer forward; in this location you cannot lose! Photographs have been enhanced for marketing purposes.
