generous storage, water tanks, 6kW solar power, and side access for a small trailer/jet ski/motorbike; are all existing features of note.

The home has been meticulously cared for by long-term owners and whilst there is no immediate money needing to be spent, you may want to update over time to enhance value and appeal, but there's certainly no rush, and there's no fear of overcapitalising in this premium waterfront street.

Opposite Tokara Canal and close to walking trails - you can cycle or walk to Currimundi Lake and beaches; the local shopping village with IGA is just a five-minute walk, and major amenities such as schools, hospitals, shopping centres, and sporting facilities - are within a 5-10 minute drive.

Tightly held since 2007 - this is a wonderful family home with great warmth, heart and soul, and with fabulous indoor and outdoor entertaining, there will be many visitors and many memories waiting to be made. Let your cup runneth over, enjoy!
