at the rear for children and pets to play - are all features of note.

The glorious forest-like setting, high ceilings and extensive use of timber infuse home with great warmth, and it has a very sanctuary-like vibe; cosy, yet open - it will appeal to those who love a home with charisma, there is nothing sterile about this lovely home.

Timber decking connects the home to garage and workshop areas, and the gardens framing the home are well established with a mix of native and tropical trees and shrubs, attracting a plethora of birdlife to serenade you with their sweet song.

All this privacy and lusciousness tucked away from the hustle and bustle of everywhere - yet within 10 minutes of Buderim CBD, Alexandra Headland and Mooloolaba beaches, and just 15 minutes to Sunshine Plaza. When you return home after a day at work, the beach, or indulging in retail therapy...you can relax on your gorgeous deck and savour the tranquillity and natural beauty your own special hideaway provides.

Sound inviting? If so, be the first to act, this will appeal to many.
