and lock up garden shed; are features of note.

The owners also have certified plans available that include an extension to home, inground pool, and shed; these are available to peruse upon request - there is plenty of room for a pool, and in this coveted beachside location, you do not have to worry about overcapitalising.

Fully fenced, flat, and grassy - the gardens are child and pet-friendly and easy-care, just a regular mow to keep it looking neat and tidy is all that's required. Inside and out, this is a low maintenance home designed to embrace the Sunshine Coast lifestyle and climate.

Not only Lake Currimundi and the beach within walking distance; from here you can also walk to bus, sporting fields, cafes, Currimundi Marketplace (750-m), and schools including Talara Primary College (13-min walk) and Currimundi State School (20-min walk) - it is also in the Meridan State College catchment zone, and the public and private hospitals of Birtinya are just a five-minute drive.

There is nothing to spend and not a finger to lift here - presentation, location, and lifestyle all shine. Act immediately!
