The master bedroom in the property is a generous size with a built-in wardrobe and an ensuite that is serviced by a ceiling fan, and how could we forget those beautiful ocean views! The other two bedrooms in the unit are also a great size and both have built-in wardrobes! The master bathroom in the property also has a bath over shower and separate toilet – perfect for when you are entertaining.

But the biggest jewel in this crown is the private rooftop terrace that has views right down the coastline and will be sure to be the perfect meeting place for all your friends and families to enjoy a coffee in the morning or champagne in the evening!

Some other enticing features of this property are its two secure carp spaces and its prime position, just a few minutes away from some of the nicest beaches, restaurants and shops the coast has to offer.
