appliances, gas cooktop, soft close cabinetry, fully tiled ensuite with dual vanities and separate bathtub, direct external access and delightful pool view from master bedroom, 8.8kW solar power, electronic gate, and abundant onsite parking for visitors and/or boat/caravan.

This is a lifestyle home; offering excellent separation plus wonderful communal space to join together to relax and celebrate, creating cherished memories of those special milestones - sharing laughter, food, wine, and just generally savouring the joie de vivre. Just imagine Christmas lunch in the air-conditioned dining room overlooking the pool followed by cocktails on the terrace and an afternoon swim.

A fenced child and pet friendly yard provide a safe, spacious grassy area for outdoor play; and in the cooler months there is a fabulous, cosy sunken firepit area with timber seating to toast the good life under the sparkling stars - with a pool, media room, and firepit, you have hit the entertainment jackpot.

Located on the outskirts of town and opposite the Mooloolah Valley Riding Centre, it is within walking distance to local parks, childcare and the primary school; and just a few minutes to the village hub with amenities including shops, cafes, community hall, and rail to Brisbane. Coast beaches, major hospitals, and the university are within a 20-25 minute proximity, and access to the M1 is quick and easy.

This truly is the complete family home in every sense. First to inspect is the likely buyer; make sure it's you.
