The site is flat and clearly large enough to build a substantial sized home; it is not (currently) zoned for development, so under the existing town plan, it is a residential site only. Surrounded by some of Buderim's most admired homes on glorious parcels of land, this is a location you cannot overcapitalise in!

Located 'on top' of Buderim, it's just footsteps White's Lookout, a short walk to Wirreanda Park famous for its majestic fig trees and local shops. Buderim CBD is a few minutes' drive, it's less than 10 minutes to beaches, golf, the university, and premium private and public schools; major hospitals, the airport, and Sunshine Plaza are 15 minutes' drive.

Buderim is one of southeast Queensland's most desirable postcodes, one of the most searched suburbs on realestate.com.au and Foote Avenue is arguably its finest address, that never fails to make a favourable impression on all whom meander this tree lined avenue with its gracious homes.
