new flooring in the living spaces, the interiors feel airy, contemporary, and welcoming.

The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area, which flows effortlessly onto a spacious private deck overlooking lush landscaped gardens and the sparkling pool. Whether entertaining guests or simply relaxing with family, this space offers a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. The kitchen has been thoughtfully renovated, combining style with practicality to create a beautiful and functional hub for everyday living.

Offering lift access from both the ground floor and secure basement parking – where you'll find two side-by-side car spaces – the apartment delivers all the comforts of easy, low-maintenance living. The Seaforth complex itself is renowned for its incredible facilities, including a large swimming pool, a heated spa, a saltwater lagoon, a fully equipped gym, a sauna, and multiple BBQ areas set amongst tropical gardens. Secure fob access ensures both peace of mind and privacy for residents.

Location is key, and this apartment truly has it all. With Alexandra Headland Beach just across the road, morning swims and sunset strolls are part of everyday life. Sunshine Plaza, the Coast's premier shopping and dining destination, is less than a 5-minute drive away, and vibrant Mooloolaba Esplanade is also nearby. Public transport is easily accessible, making it effortless to connect with Maroochydore CBD, Cotton Tree, and beyond.

Offering a rare combination of size, privacy, position, and lifestyle, this stunning apartment at 240/19B Wirraway Street presents an incredible opportunity to embrace the very best of Sunshine Coast living.
