are also ceiling fans throughout.

Presentation is pristine and there is nothing needing to be spent. Vacant and rent-ready or ready to move straight into and savour the exceptional convenience, whilst still nestled away from the hustle and bustle, this is location, location, location meets opportunity, lifestyle, and affordability.

A mixture of owner-occupiers and tenants, "Kirsten Place" is pet-friendly (stbca) and body corporate fees are low. There is onsite visitor parking, and this low maintenance, solidly built complex is very neat and tidy; and tucked away at the end of a mini cul-de-sac backing directly onto a sporting field, only residents would even be aware of its existence!

This could be absolutely ideal for first home buyers, downsizers, and investors; so easy to lock-and-leave when away travelling and ultra-easy to maintain, there's more time for the fun stuff – the beach, fishing on the river, retail therapy at Sunshine Plaza, dining out at Ocean Street, watching the latest blockbuster at Event Cinemas, or just chilling on the balcony with your drink of choice.

Whilst Maroochydore's many amenities are all within walking distance, and the beach is a 30-minute walk or short bike ride; other major amenities such as hospitals, airport, and university are within a 12–20-minute driving radius.

The investor owner is motivated to sell and aiming for a spring settlement. With strong interest anticipated, this opportunity may not last beyond the first open home.
