Upstairs, all three bedrooms are well sized, including a master suite with walk-in robe and private ensuite. The main bathroom, additional storage, and built-in robes to bedrooms two and three ensure the property meets the expectations of today's tenants and future owner-occupiers. A secure single garage, plus an extra under covered car space further enhances the home's appeal.

Located moments from local shopping centres, cafes, medical facilities, childcare, transport links and major arterials, the position is ideal for attracting long-term, quality tenants. With strong recent comparable sales in the immediate Stringybark corridor and a consistently high-demand rental market, this property represents a smart, low-risk addition to any investment portfolio.

A rock-solid investment in one of the Sunshine Coast's most convenient and growth-focused locations... secure it now and enjoy strong income with excellent future upside.
