Current owners have invested in significant improvements and have comprehensively renovated throughout replacing virtually everything in the past few years including new carpets, new fans, external rendering, repainting internal, new kitchen and bathrooms, new lighting and window furnishings, new outdoor flyover roof on terrace, new laundry, and installed a 6.5kW solar system in 2022.

Other notable features include ducted air-conditioning, stone benches in all wet areas, soft close cabinetry, induction cooktop, built-in convection oven, integrated dishwasher, dual vanities in fully tiled ensuite, spa bath in family bathroom, security screens, rainwater tank, 5.4x9m workshop/garage with third bathroom and covered storage, and electronic front gate.

Being fully fenced this is a secure, private property that also offers child and pet-friendly grassy play areas; and there are established native and tropical gardens, vegetable patch, and fruit trees for fresh produce from garden to plate. The gardens complement the home's ambience and complete what is a very appealing property inside and out.

Located in a fabulous family-friendly neighbourhood in popular North Buderim with walking distance to parks, local shops, and Kuluin State School (via pedestrian bridge); cycling distance to Immanuel Lutheran College and within 10 minutes to major shopping, CBD, airport, and beaches; it's all here or nearby.

This is a red-hot auction property that will attract a high volume of interest; owners have strong motivation and will seriously consider pre-auction offers. Be the first to act.
