Inside your apartment, it just gets better with two double plus bedrooms, extra-large built-ins and a luxury en-suite off the master with spa, big shower and double vanity. Bathroom fixtures and fittings are of the highest quality and as new. Both the master bedroom and lounge open (separately) to the large north-facing covered patio with views of tropical gardens and low-maintenance private yard.

The dining and living areas are also very generous and all in immaculate condition with the very best of everything.

The kitchen is well designed with quality appliances, new dishwasher and magnificent glass splash-backs. There is room for a big fridge, plus plenty of bench and storage space. The laundry is also a fantastic design and includes a clothes dryer for your convenience.

The owners must relocate as soon as possible and will consider all reasonable offers. This apartment is definitely a class above and delivers value on every level.

The market is hotting-up and quality property is limited. Don't miss your chance, call today and arrange your inspection. You won't be disappointed.
