liveable as is'.

A delightful garden with well established vegetation requires minimal maintenance and there is good shade in parts; the covered alfresco entertaining area is a cosy place to enjoy socialising and celebrations and there is potential here to open out further.

Within walking distance of Buddina Primary School, Kawana Shoppingworld, the beach, parks and local shops; this is a highly sought after location, one of the Coast's most in-demand suburbs that never loses its appeal.

The new hospital precinct and health hub is only a five minute drive, and a massive investment in infrastructure in this section of the Coast has further accelerated its popularity with both investors and owner occupiers.

Properties of this vintage, on the beach side of the Nicklin Way generally get snapped up very quickly by savvy buyers who can clearly see potential for attractive capital growth and are already sold on the virtues of the location and lifestyle on offer. Be quick, this is a cracking opportunity.
