water tank plumbed into washing machine and toilets, and energy efficient solar power 5kva with 16 panels.

The decor is modern and neutral, complementing most furniture types, and in colours that have timeless appeal. With separate living areas, there is a space for everyone and a room for all occasions, from informal to formal the children can have their own TV room, parents their own lounge room, with a family room for all.

Well established landscaped gardens require minimal maintenance to keep looking good, and there is plenty of grassed area for children and pets to play...when not in the pool! It is a home where weekend BBQ's will be a regular occurrence, a home your children will want to bring their friends, and a home you will love returning at the end of each working day.

Located within the Meridan Plains College catchment, and within walking distance to Pacific Lutheran College, you have an excellent choice of highly regarded public or independent school options. The university is a 20 minute bike ride via cycle tracks, and the new hospital precinct, along with the Kawana CBD is just a few minute's drive, whilst the stunning beaches along the southern coastal strip are less than 10 minutes away! It is lifestyle 101!

Buyers seeking a wonderful lifestyle home in a location so close to major amenities, as well as the beach MUST inspect; serious sellers ready to sign immediate contract.
