room which is perfect for the kids rumpus room. At the hub of this home, the main lounge adjoins the large kitchen and separate dining room, which flows out to the alfresco area. The kitchen is well-proportioned and offers lashings of cupboard and pantry space.

The low-maintenance gardens require minimal effort to keep looking tidy, with well-established plantings and not too much lawn to mow leaving more time for weekends spent on the water! A large back yard shed provides loads of storage space for the garden tools, bikes, surfboards and recreational toys. Just around the corner, right on the river, is a large park with sandy beach for the kids to splash around, and offering easy access for canoes and kayaks, enabling you to enjoy a paddle on the river whenever the mood takes you.

The location of this home is unbeatable, tucked away in a quiet street free of passing traffic, you are just a stone's throw from Mooloolah River. Shopping and entertainment precincts, and transport links are less than a 10-minute walk, with schools, beaches, and the new Sunshine Coast University Hospital less than 10 minutes' drive away. The position of this home is incredibly desirable for busy families looking to be positioned central to all that the Coast lifestyle has to offer.
