light throughout the day, appreciating liveability and value.

The thoughtfully planned out kitchen is an entertainer's dream, while the large backyard with double side access means you can park any of your toys securely or enhance the leisure level by adding a pool or shed.

Indeed, this property can cater for all family requirements in style, however, the best thing is the desirable location. Brightwater has schools, shops, dining and recreation options all within a 5-minute radius and the Sunshine Motorway is just as close, further maximising the investment and family potential.

So, if you are in the market for a perfect family home, an astute investment or you're clued onto both, you cannot go past the remarkable value that 27 Tamborine Close represents.
